Polish Regime Thanks Church For Mediation

WARSAW, Poland (NC) — Polish government representatives thanked Pope John Paul II and the Polish hierarchy for their efforts to "promote the peaceful resolution" of recent labor disputes.

According to a communique from the Polish Bishops' Conference, the officials expressed their gratitude during a meeting of the mixed commission of representatives of the government and the Polish hierarchy April 1 in Warsaw.

The meeting took place the day after the independent union movement, Solidarity, cancelled plans for a nationwide strike.
